

Emily Carbone

emily.m.carbone@gmail.com

(571) 305-3229

Professional Summary

Young professional who goes above and beyond basic tasks to achieve the best possible results in any situation. Excellent work ethic and a love for learning.

Skills

- Excellent communication skills
- Creative problem-solver
- Works well under pressure
- Excellent planner and coordinator
- Team leadership
- Learns new skills quickly

Work History

Props

Props Designer: Synetic Theater
Spring 2022, The Servant of Two Masters

Props Designer: Synetic Theater
Winter 2021, Cinderella

Internship: Avista Custom Theatrical Services
Summer 2019, Full Season

Student Contract (Construction): Temple University
Fall 2018, Side Show

Stage Management

SM: Mount Vernon Community Children's Theatre
Spring 2022, Annie

SM/ASM Team Member: Temple University
Fall 2016, Philadelphia Young Playwrights Festival

Varied Scenic Shop Experience

Student Contract: Temple University
Fall 2017, Full Season

Administrative

Box Office Assistant: Mauckingbird Theatre Company
Fall 2018, Tartuffe

Education

Bachelor of Arts:

Musical Theater, 2020

Temple University - Philadelphia, PA

- Propcraft
Professor Amanda Hatch
- Introduction to Design
Professor Robin Shane
- Introduction to Technical Theatre
(Welcome Backstage)
Professor Andrew Laine

Teaching and Acting resumes available upon request*