
EMILY CARBONE

(571) 305-3229 | emily.m.carbone@gmail.com

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Lifelong educator who aims to build problem-solving skills, confidence, and empathy in all children.
Excellent work ethic and a love for learning.

ABRIDGED WORK HISTORY

ARTS EDUCATION

Director, 2026 (Seussical at Mount Vernon Community Children's Theatre)

- Conducted auditions and callbacks for more than 100 young actors.
- Collaborated with producers, stage manager, MD, and choreographer to direct a cast of 45 students, ages 8 to 18.

Director, 2025 (The Lion, The Witch & The Wardrobe at Mount Vernon Community Children's Theatre)

- Directed, stage managed, and sound designed for a cast of 16 students, ages 11 to 18.
- Managed operations between the artistic team, producing team, board members, and parent volunteers.

Music Teacher, 2020 - 2023 (Aldersgate Day School)

- Planned and taught weekly music classes for students ages 2 to 6, encouraging a growing music vocabulary, brain and body development, and an arts-integrated learning environment.
- Planned, managed, and executed bi-annual concert programs for all students and staff.

Teaching Artist, Freelance (Arts on the Horizon)

- Planned and taught day-camp, drop-in classes, and birthday party events for students ages 2 to 5, focusing on storytelling, sensory exploration, and brain and body development.

Teaching Artist, Freelance (Alexandria Children's Theatre)

- Planned and taught workshops, after school classes, and summer camps in theatre, dance, playwrighting, and auditioning for students ages 5 to 18.

Teaching Assistant, Summer 2016, 2017 (Mount Vernon Community Children's Theatre)

- Worked directly with campers and fellow teaching artists to build children's confidence, stage-craft, and communication skills, culminating in a final showcase performance.

STUDENT ARTS MANAGEMENT

Camp Director/Manager, Spring/Summer 2022 (Mount Vernon Community Children's Theatre)

- Hired and trained staff, managed day-to-day camp activities, coordinated with partner camps, and maintained contact with parents for summer camp, students ages 6 to 12.

Stage Manager, Spring 2022 (Annie at Mount Vernon Community Children's Theatre)

- Maintained organized notes regarding production schedules, actor information, and director needs.
- Managed communications between the artistic team, producing team, board members, and parent volunteers.
- Assisted the director and music director with staging, choreography, and teaching music.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts: Musical Theater, 2020

Temple University – Philadelphia, PA

- Summa cum laude graduate
- Member of the Temple University Honor's College